Third Fridays | May - December 2017 | A free, self-guided arts event

Greetings Art Walkers!

Autumn is in the air and with a fair weather forecast, this month's Art Walk LA will be featuring a busy schedule of events, indoors and out. Auburn's Festival Plaza will host the annual Red Table Event, a community picnic. At One Great Falls Plaza, directly opposite Auburn City Hall, visitors can enjoy book readings by children's author Emily Coyle, a pop up selfie booth, and the "Community Masterpiece" art project. At Auburn Public Library, fiber artist Cheryl Whitmore will be displaying her quilts and the Maine Music Society Chamber Singers will be performing at 7:00pm.

Highlights of Art Walk LA events in Lewiston include:

At the L/A Arts Gallery - "Remnant", a new exhibit by Celeste LaForme, a visual and installation artist working in oil, graphite, gouache and organic materials. The exhibit will feature wall-hung work as well as window installations utilizing grass, mint, flowers, and insects. Also in the Gallery, the craft exhibit, "Journeys of the Hand: Artisans from Africa" will continue with new work added.

Kimball Street Studios is offering a preview exhibit "Infinite Canvas: Comics and Fantasy Illustration", a wide range of work from Maine-based comic and illustration artists, coinciding with the upcoming Great Falls Comics Expo.

At Androscoggin Bank, an exhibition of the work from photographer and digital artist Bonham Johnson - who will be attending from Atlanta, Georgia.

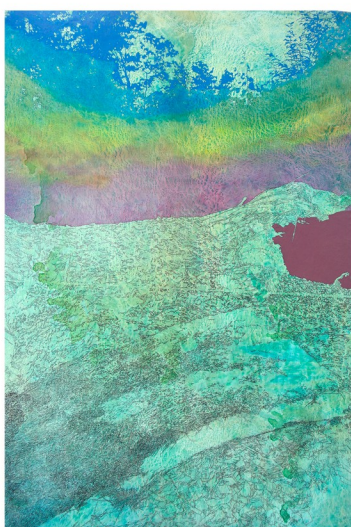

Live performances include steel drum orchestra Tinpanic - performing at DuFresne Plaza and children's author Nancy Beule - reading from her new book at Rinck Advertising.

Art Walk LA is all about free arts experiences for the whole family. With a range of venues on both sides of the river, there are wonderful opportunities for a night out with the arts. Many venues/artists offer light refreshments and once you've worked up an appetite Art Walking, the nearby restaurants will be delighted to see you.
